2. Deputy Speaker Allen States

- a. Every senator needs to complete a 1 on 1 most of you have gotten back to me however a few have not. Senator Ashton, Senator Kolawole, Chairperson Olson, and Senator Althoff still need to do 1 on 1s.
- b. Please attend Board of Elections meetings if you want to come back.
- c. Met with member of Holmes Student Center staff how we set up our stuff so that we have good events.

B. Clerk's Report

1. Clerk English is recognized.

2. Clerk English states

- a. Hello senators I wanted to remind you that it is expected that you fully read the agenda and all legislation on it so that we don't have to ask and answer questions that are already included in the legislation.
- b. Also I wanted to remind senators that if they agree with most of a piece of legislation but want to add to a part, they can make a motion to modify the wording and if that requires research needed outside of the current meeting you can make a motion to table the legislation for until the next meeting.
- c. Also I wanted to remind senators that a resolution is a vote on our support for a cause or change within the university, a petition is a signed document of support for those changes we can send to members of the university, and a bill is to make changes to how the SGA operates. Last week there appeared to be confusion about what various levels of legislation could do. So this is just a reminder if you have questions, please let me know after the meeting.

- d. I wanted to let y'all know that I will be following up on statements made in reports from people who promised to give out information that they were not able to give at the time of the report from now on. With that being said, Director Becker according to both Deputy Speaker Allen and Senator Martin they have not received title IX information, the volleyball coaches name, not the percentage of student fee money that athletics takes. Please make sure you send that information to them promptly.

Blalock

- a. "SENATE EXECUTIVE REPORT

- b. For my position, I have been working with Vice President Lee and the entirety of the Organizational Oversight Committee to swiftly, and accurately approve all organizations. In the past, we worked on a large mission of updating all organizations on campus, and ensuring that their Constitutions / Bylaws meet the standards of NIU and Student Government. This consisted of all 250+ organizations that we have listed in HuskieHub.

- c. Since then, I have been diligently working through HuskieHub and Workflow to ensure that all new submissions for organizations on campus are attended to. I check HuskieHub every single day and send out emails as often as I possibly can based on the response time of those that I am in contact with.
- d. To this date, I have submitted a quite substantial number of organizations to Cole Hensley and the OOC committee with the help of Vice President Lee. My goal is to continue to push organizations that fully meet the requirements up to the OOC and help everyone that I possibly can obtain full recognition / approval here on campus.
- e. FUTURE ENDEAVOURS
- f. In the near future, my goal is to continue to create a positive presence on campus for SGA by attending as many events within the calendar as possible. Pushing our presence and support to the student body is a big priority of mine. This positive relationship between SGA and all student organizations will allow us to offer more support for those who know that they can reach out to us, and utilize all of our support / services.”
